

FIGURE 5.2. The Shape of the Production Frontiers of Nation 1 and Nation 2.

The production frontier of Nation 1 is flatter and wider than the production frontier of Nation 2, indicating that Nation 1 can produce relatively more of commodity X than Nation 2. The reason for this is that Nation 1 is the L-abundant nation and commodity X is the L-intensive commodity.