Bridge over Troubled Water	Put the words into the gaps
When you're, feeling small
When tears are in your eyes, I'll dry them all (all)
I'm, oh, when times get rough
And friends just can't be found
Like a bridge over troubled water	Pain = douleur
I will lay me down
Like a bridge over troubled water	On your side = de ton côté
I will lay me down
When you're	Down and out = à terre
When you're on the street
When evening falls so hard	Darkness = obscurité
I will comfort you (ooo)
I'll take your part, oh, when	Shine = briller comes
And is all around	Weary = fatigue
Like a bridge over troubled water
I will lay me down	Sailing = naviguer, faire de la voile
Like a bridge over troubled water
I will lay me down
Sail on silver girl
Sail on by
Your time has come to
All your dreams are on their way
See how they shine
Oh, if you need a friend
I'm right behind
Like a bridge over troubled water
I will ease your mind
Like a bridge over troubled water
I will ease your mind

"Bridge over Troubled Water" was written by Paul Simon in 1970. According to Wikipedia (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Bridge_over_Troubled_Water_(song)), Simon thought it would be best for Art Garfunkel to sing the song, although Simon later regretted this a bit, feeling that it was his song. Simon was surely inspired when writing the song, as he wrote it very quickly.

The song was very successful. It became Simon & Garfunkel's biggest single hit, and is often considered as their signature song (i.e. the song with which they are most identified.
