Depending on your level of study, you can access libraries associated with the joint library service. Use this interactive map to find them.

At Paris 1 libraries, you can:

- Access the library by scanning the barcode on your student or reader card;
- Find documents using the Mikado discovery tool, available on computers and smartphones;
- Read books, magazines, and other resources;
- Borrow and return books using the self-service machines with your student card;
- Use computers for your work or research;
- Study independently or collaborate in a reserved group study room;
- Print, scan, and photocopy documents as needed;
- Relax on Fatboys or sofas while browsing magazines!

To learn how to use these services, check out the following step-by-step guides:

Access your reader account and renew loans

1. Log in to Mikado via your ENT portal.
2. Scroll down the left sidebar and click on Compte lecteur (Reader account)
3. View your current loans by selecting Voir et prolonger mes emprunts (View and renew my loans)
4. Check the boxes next to the items you want to renew, then click Prolonger la sélection (Renew selection)

Done! Your loans are extended for an additional 7 days. Note: renewals are only possible once per loan and if you have no overdue items.

You can also access your reader account and renew loans directly from the self-service kiosks available in select libraries (PMF, Colliard, École des Arts).

Print

➢ École des Arts de la Sorbonne, Jean-Claude-Colliard and Pierre-Mendès-France libraries: These libraries use the same copying system. You can make copies using your student card or external reader card (see instructions below).

Wireless network

There are two ways to connect to the Paris 1 Wi-Fi network:

1) Eduroam Wi-Fi network
- To connect to the Eduroam network, download and install eduroam CAT on your smartphone, tablet or computer;
- In the list of institutions, select 'Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne' and complete the installation.

Once set up, this tool will allow you to automatically connect to the Eduroam network at any participating university or higher education institution, both in France and internationally.

2) univ-paris1.fr Wi-Fi network
- If you do not have Eduroam installed, you can choose 'universite-paris1';
- Enter your Paris 1 login and password.

Antidote

Some SCD library computers are equipped with Antidote, a powerful spell-checking software available in both English and French.

Antidote is designed for everyone: whether you want to refine your writing, have dyslexia, or are a non-native French speaker.

Using Antidote is simple:
1. Open your word processor and type your text.
2. Click the "Antidote" menu in the top right corner.
3. Select the "Corrector" option.

Antidote offers three main tools to help you perfect your text:

Language: detects and corrects French grammar and conjugation errors.
Typography: ensures proper punctuation and formatting.
Style: enhances the clarity and quality of your writing.

Once you select a menu, errors will be highlighted in your text, and suggested corrections will appear in the right-hand pane. Click on any underlined error to display a tooltip with the correction and a brief explanation. To apply the correction, simply click "Correct".

The Style menu helps you identify repetitive phrases, redundant expressions, and vocabulary issues, making your text clearer and more engaging. For example, in the Repetition menu, Antidote will flag words or phrases you've used multiple times. Click on a highlighted term to access the "Synonym" option, which suggests alternative words to diversify your vocabulary and enhance your writing style.
