

The end of term exam is on 21 April: please do come 😊

You will need to answer two essay questions:

A/ discuss ONE of the subjects we have seen in class: /10

- 1/ Are we experiencing the end of neoliberalism?
- 2/ What is the scientific method of economics (or your discipline)?
- 3/ What can you say about work and labour market segmentation?
- 4/ What is democracy and what are its limits?
- 5/ What is inequality?
- 6/ What is money?
- 7/ What are the functions of banking and finance?
- 8/ What can you say about international political economy and the new war in South-West Asia?
- 9/ Discuss “Who cooked Adam Smith’s dinner?” by Katrine Marçal.
- 10/ What do you think of Brexit and European Integration?

B/ Discuss the most interesting thing you have learnt this term.

(Surprise me 😊) /10

(If you want to have your exam paper returned, come with a stamped, addressed envelope (50g), and I will post your exam paper.)
