MCQ Economic Epistémology - 2026 january – Chapter 2
Question paper

Question 1. Economic mechanisms

A. Co-exist with historical determination of economic variables

B. Necessarily lead to a laissez-faire policy

C. None of the other answers are correct

D. Leads to the ineffectiveness of the State’s intervention

Question 2. Price changes are understood by economic theories as

A. The result of a process without purpose

B. No other answer is correct

C. The result of non-visible planning

D. The result of the sellers' profit maximization mechanism

Question 3. In the Aristotelian explanation of motion in the sublunary world,

A. The mathematical laws of motion are established

B. The movement is similar to that of the supralunary world

C. Bodies tend to rest on the condition that they achieve their purpose

D. Bodies tend to move rather than to rest

Question 4. The causes of motion in Galileo's physics

A. No other answer is correct

B. Are invalidated by friction

C. Are perceptible by the senses

D. Are based on an external purpose of bodies

Question 5. The tendency of the rate of profit to fall

A. Disproves one of the natural laws of the social world

B. Is a unintentional consequence of agents' actions

C. Relies on agents anticipating the consequences of their actions

D. No other answer is correct